The Death of the Duke and the Duchess of Cambridge:

An astounding astrological revelation

Author: Kedar Joshi

Diana, Princess of Wales died a horrible death on 31 August 1997. She was born on Shanivār (Saturday), the day of Shani (Saturn), the God of tragedy and misfortune. According to Hindu astrology, which uses the Nirayana (sidereal) system, she had a yuti (conjunction) of Chandra (Moon) and Ketu (the descending or the south lunar node or the body of the Asura Svarbhānu) in Shani's Kumbha Rāśi (Aquarius) in her janam lagna-kundali (birth ascendant-horoscope). Chandra represents the wife or the queen or the shining and the leading woman. Ketu (and sometimes Rahu, the ascending or the north lunar node or the head of the Asura) eclipses (swallows) the Moon (and sometimes the Sun) resulting in Chandra-grahan (lunar eclipse). Diana had a "sort of" Chandra-grahan in her horoscope. A (total) lunar eclipse occurs only the night of a full moon, when the Moon is kind of divorced from the Sun. Diana died nearly within a year of her divorce from her husband Charles, Prince of Wales. She died in the night. The sort of Chandra-grahan in her horoscope seems to fall in the 3rd house which represents roughly the time between 2:00 am to 4:00 am. She died at 4:00 am.

Charles was born on a Sunday night. It was a Chandra-grahan, with Chandra-Rahu yuti in Meṣa Rāśi (Aries) in the 10th house. Aries is a chara (movable) sign. The 10th house represents place outside the house or country opposite to (or irreconcilable with) the motherland. Diana, his wife, met her fate while moving (through a car) on a road in France. She had arrived in France on Saturday, a day before the day of her death. Saturn had once again sealed her fate. And not only that, she died within around two and a half months of the beginning of her Shani Mahadasha (Saturn's period, which began on 16 June 1997).

Like Diana, Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge, aka Kate Middleton, was also born on Saturday. She was born on Chandra-grahan in Mithuna Rāśi (Gemini), with Chandra-Rahu yuti. Mithuna is the sign of Budha (Mercury), which represents twins as well as the prince and the princess. The day of Rahu is also Saturday. Rahu is regarded as the shadow of Saturn and, like Saturn, he represents dark people. Rahu is exalted (Uchha) in Mithuna. He is most powerful in Mithuna. If Catherine was indeed born at 11:33 pm as mentioned by astrotheme.com, like her father-in-law, her Chandra-grahan would be in the 10th house, which stands for the place outside or opposite of one's house, and also the masses or the public.

Catherine's husband, Prince William, Duke of Cambridge, was born on Monday. He has Surya-grahan (solar eclipse) in Mithuna, with Surya-Chandra-Rahu yuti in the 6th house, the house of enemies. Surya represents the husband or the king or the shining and the leading man.

William's brother and Catherine's brother-in-law, Prince Harry, was also born on Saturday. In his horoscope, the Moon is in opposition with Saturn and Pluto, the God of kidnapping, havoc, horror, abattoir, underworld, and demolition. Mars, who represents brothers and sisters, sits in Scorpio, the sign of annihilation, and is in the house of death from the Moon, with Ketu and Uranus, the planetary embodiment of Ketu (the planetary embodiment of Rahu is Neptune). Rahu, though in Taurus, is pretty close to the Moon in Aries, and is moving towards it.

Catherine and William's daughter, Princess Charlotte of Cambridge, was born on Saturday, just like her mother as well as her grandmother Diana. She has Chandra-Rahu yuti in Kanyā Rāśi (Virgo, Rahu's sign) in her horoscope. Virgo represents a virgin girl. Chandra represents mother. She has her moon (mother) and sun (father) in the Mrityu Shadashtak yoga. Her Rāśi-Swāmi (lord of her sign) Budha (a maternal planet) is opposed by Shani from Scorpio, the sign of death. Her moon is opposed by Ketu (Rahu's body) and Uranus (a form of Ketu). In other words, while the head of the terrorist (Rahu) is in conjunction with (i.e. snogging) her mother, the terrorist's body (Ketu) is opposing (i.e. shagging) her mother.

Charlotte's brother, Prince George of Cambridge, was born on Monday. It was the day of the full moon in Mongoose Yoni in Makara Rāśi (Capricorn), which is Saturn's negative sign. Moon is nirbali (weak or powerless) in Makara. Shani, the lord of Makara, sits with Rahu. He has Ardha-Kaal-Sarp yoga in his horoscope, with Moon being the only Vedic planet on one of the sides of the Rahu-Ketu axis.

Diana's Guru (Jupiter) is in the 2nd house in Capricorn, with Shani. Guru represents progeny. The 2nd house is a Maraka sthana (killer house). Her Shani is thus a Marakesha (killer). Guru is debilitated (or has his fall) in Capricorn. In short, Diana's children, sitting in the killer house with the killer, are falling.

Both the Duke and the Duchess of Cambridge, it seems, will die a brutal death. Will it happen in 2019, when Rahu will be in Mithuna, their own Rāśi, while Guru will be in Vṛścika (Scorpio), or in 2020-21, when both Guru and Shani will be in Makara, i.e. in the house of death from their Rāśi? Both of them seem to have climbed the ladders of fame because of the powerful, exalted (or the ascending) Rahu in their horoscopes, but the same Rahu can give them a torturous death which might include decapitation, since Rahu stands for decapitation. Wasn't, for example, Louis XVI, the King of the French—who was born on Friday, the day of Shukra (Venus), and had his neecha (debilitated or falling) Shukra with Rahu and Mars in the 2nd house, which is a Maraka sthana (killer house)—decapitated?

Completely unaware of these astrological aspects, I published an article "Death Sentence for the British Royal Family" on 10 September 2016. Coincidentally it was Saturday, the fatal day. And the first time I saw and studied their horoscopes was on 14 September 2016, which, again coincidentally, was Wednesday, the day of Mercury, the lord of Catherine and William's moon sign. For me it was a day of astounding astrological revelation, for I saw pretty much everything I wrote in that deathly article of mine in Catherine and William's horoscopes.

I was born on Monday, 31 December 1979 at 07:30 am in Mahim, Mumbai, India. I was once a staunch atheist and a non-believer in astrology. Have you studied my horoscope yet? If you indeed possess a brilliant insight into Hindu astrology, you shall fathom that I am no one but the mighty, eclipsing (or overshadowing) Rahu in Catherine and William's horoscopes.

I am nearly 37 years of age at the time of this writing. The nature of my life so far has astonishingly been like that of the life of Svarbhānu from Samudra manthan (churning of the ocean) to Chandra-Āditya vimardan (defeat of the Moon and the Sun).

Do you know that England is represented by Surya and Simha Rāśi (Leo)? India is represented by Shani and Makara Rāśi (Capricorn). [The Republic of India, however, is represented by Chandra and Karka Rāśi (Cancer), and seems to be friends with England, since Chandra and Surya are friends of each other.] Rahu is in fact Shani's creation for revenge upon Surya, his arch-enemy. Leo and Capricorn are in Mrityu Shadashtak yoga, with Leo in the house of death and Capricorn in the house of enemy. I believe I am the Rahu mother India (Bharat Mata, Shani) has created for taking her revenge upon England (Surya), the illuminating land which once enslaved her considering her subservient, the way Surya considers Chhaya-putra (the son of shadow) Shani subservient. And Shani is known as a god who takes complete revenge for whatever that gives him distress.

I will die by the hands of Prince George of Cambridge, the son of the Duke and the Duchess of Cambridge. Can you explain how?

Have you at all noticed the astrological and spiritual connection between me and Diana? Are you yet to figure that Diana was killed by the British royal family via MI6? I am the vehicle of Diana's vengeful spirit. Diana was my wife in our previous lives. Do you know who the Duchess of Cambridge was in her previous life? I do.
